Academy, by giving a very delightful

breakfast at the residence of Colonel and Mrs. Joseph P. Minetree, 1723 P. street. Rev. Alfred Harding officiated. The bride party was made up of the ushers, Messrs. Edmund Hollins Rumbold, of Baltimore; Allen O. Clephane, of Annapolis; Joseph E. Angel, of Annapolis; and James Lawrence Minetree. Miss Elizabeth Epes Minetree, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. Dudley Pitts, of Boston, best man. The bride entered on the arm of her father, and was attired in a gown of white satin en traine, and carried a bouquet of lilacs of the valley and white violets. The maid of honor wore a creation of light blue crepe de chine and an imported hat of blue velvet, shading from dark to light, and carried Bridesmaid roses. The ceremony in the palm-adorned and brilliantly lighted chancel was an impressive one. Colonel and Mrs. Minetree's home was beautifully decorated for the breakfast. The drawing-room, hall and staircase and dining-room were hung with asparagus vines—while chrysanthemums adorned the first named, red ones brightened the hall and pink flowers the dining-room. Mr. and Mrs. Pitts left during the afternoon for a bridal tour, and upon their return will reside at 1903 N. street, where Mrs. Pitts will receive her friends the Saturdays in January. Among the out-of-town friends attending the wedding were the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Pitts, of Haverhill, Mass.; Mrs. Margaret Pitts, of Haverhill; Mrs. Walker, Miss Dodson, of Henderson, of Petersburg, Va.; Miss Mary Lou Gray, of Norfolk; Miss Ethel Hollins Rumbold, Mr. Fleider Singhuff and Mr. Thomas G. Buchanan, of Baltimore; Mrs. Thomas Martin Emerson, of Wilmington, N. C.; Mr. Greer Baughman and Miss Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Pison, of Richmond.

Lieutenant Commander Sternes entertained Mrs. Jennigan, Mrs. H. Murray, Miss Emily Smith, and Miss Ethel Hardy Friday afternoon at the navy yard.

Mr. Warren G. Elliott, president of the Atlantic Coast Line, entertained a number of the delegates to the railroad convention Wednesday in a delightful manner. In the morning they boarded a tug and enjoyed a run to Elizabeth City, where an elaborate luncheon, champagne taking a leading place in the menu, was served. The party returned to the city late in the afternoon.

Miss Elizabeth Freeman entertained Mrs. A. M. Cook, Miss Louise du Barry and Lieutenant Oliver, U. S. N., at a charming lunch on Wednesday at the Country Club Thursday. The party drove to their destination and passed the day most delightfully at this attractive spot.

Becoming a Mother

In an ordeal which all women approach with indescribable fear, for nothing can compare with the horrors of child-birth. The thought of the suffering and danger in store for her, robs the expectant mother of all pleasure and anticipation of the coming event, and casts over her a shadow of gloom that cannot be shaken off. Thousands of women have found that the use of MORRIS' FRIEND during pregnancy is a safeguard to mother and child. This scientific liniment is a godsend to all women at the time of their most critical period. Not only does MORRIS' FRIEND carry woman safely through the perils of child-birth, but its use gently prepares the system for the coming event, prevents "morning sickness," and other discomforts of this period. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Send for free booklet to THE BRADFORD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Georgia.

A LOAD OF DEMONS.

The miseries of dyspepsia and biliousness are like a load of demons. Each misery has a different name, but they all belong to one fiendish family. And they all travel together. No use trying to get rid of any one of them by itself; you can't shake off a single passenger. The only way is to cut the traces and quit the whole load at once. Headache, nervousness, constipation, mental depression, dizziness, dullness, lassitude, catarrh, skin eruptions, liver complaint and a hundred other complaints are all caused either by a disordered stomach or sluggish liver or bowels. Put these three great life-supporting functions in regular condition and all the horrible symptoms will disappear together. That is why Ripans Tablets do. That is why they completely cure every form and symptom of biliousness and indigestion.

RIPANS TABLETS.

There is no other remedy for dyspepsia and constipation so absolutely perfect and certain in its action.

They are more than a mere relief. They impart new organic strength and tone to the stomach and the entire digestive tract so that digestion becomes a natural and easy process. They are the prescription of a regular physician, and are recommended by the most skillful doctors in the world, as perfectly mild and harmless, yet absolutely certain in their effect. They are specially valuable as a regulator and preventive for people of sedentary occupations, particularly women.

The great danger of dyspepsia and constipation is that they weaken and exhaust the entire system. That is why it is best open bowels often, disperse blood and a vigorous action to rid the system of poisons. If you are suffering a load of demons, CUT THE TRACES. TABLETS WILL.

A WEEK IN SOCIETY.

past was partaken of. Mr. and Mrs. Wright are noted for the delightful manner in which they entertain, and parties at their home are always enjoyed.

The usual Saturday afternoon reception took place at the Country Club yesterday. The fine weather was just suited to golf, which is now so much the craze, and a large number of players were on the links, thoroughly enjoying the game. Delightful refreshments were dispensed, and the other amusements and fascinations of the Club were indulged in.

Mrs. Thomas Willcox entertained a party of friends Thursday evening at her home on Freemason street in honor of her guest, Miss Claude Miles, of Annapolis. Seven-hand euchre was indulged in and greatly enjoyed by those who were present. Refreshments of a tempting nature were partaken of after the game and, needless to say, enjoyed.

The Portsmouth Cottillon Club gave one of their delightful gatherings Thursday. The dance took place at Kirm Hall and was a great success. The Naval Post Band played sweet music for the dancers, and to its inspiring strains, Mr. J. Ridgley Porter led the couples through the mazy german figures. The chaperones were Mrs. Chas. E. Brown and Mrs. J. Whit. Ashburn. Quite a large number were present and the evening passed all too quickly and pleasantly.

A very enjoyable card party was given by Mrs. Hugh Murray Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Jennigan, of Baltimore, who is visiting here. Progressive whist was the game chosen for the amusement of the guests. Miss Hardy, of the ladies' party, a handsome hat, while Mr. Willcox carried off the honors among the gentlemen, and was the victor of Kipling's works. Mrs. Jennigan won the booby prize, a candlestick. Refreshments, daintily served by the parlormaid, and it was at about one hour that the guests took their departure. Mrs. Murray's guests on a recent occasion were Mrs. Jennigan, Mr. E. L. Sandoz, Miss Smith, Miss Hardy, Miss Emily Smith, Miss Margaret Blumie, Miss Frances, Miss Helen Rogers, Miss Ada, Miss Frank Willcox, Mr. Her- bert, Mr. Louis Smith, Mr. Commander Stevens, U. S. N., Mr. Robert, Mr. Edward Higgins, Mr. J. P. Payne and Mr. John Pearce.

Of interest to the people of the city was the Washington Wednesday Musical Society, which gave a concert at the city hall, Wednesday evening. The program was a most interesting and fashionable one and was followed by a breakfast at the residence of Colonel and Mrs. Joseph P. Minetree, 1723 P. street. Rev. Alfred Harding officiated. The bride party was made up of the ushers, Messrs. Edmund Hollins Rumbold, of Baltimore; Allen O. Clephane, of Annapolis; Joseph E. Angel, of Annapolis; and James Lawrence Minetree. Among the out-of-town friends attending the wedding were the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Pitts, of Haverhill, Mass.; Mrs. Margaret Pitts, of Haverhill; Mrs. Walker, Miss Dodson, of Henderson, of Petersburg, Va.; Miss Mary Lou Gray, of Norfolk; Miss Ethel Hollins Rumbold, Mr. Fleider Singhuff and Mr. Thomas G. Buchanan, of Baltimore; Mrs. Thomas Martin Emerson, of Wilmington, N. C.; Mr. Greer Baughman and Miss Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Pison, of Richmond.

Lieutenant Commander Sternes entertained Mrs. Jennigan, Mrs. H. Murray, Miss Emily Smith, and Miss Ethel Hardy Friday afternoon at the navy yard.

Mr. Warren G. Elliott, president of the Atlantic Coast Line, entertained a number of the delegates to the railroad convention Wednesday in a delightful manner. In the morning they boarded a tug and enjoyed a run to Elizabeth City, where an elaborate luncheon, champagne taking a leading place in the menu, was served.
